Cuba is an island that awakens all manner of ardent passions with the very mention of the word. Its cultural gifts are legion, a rich legacy of music and dance, and most especially the visual arts – film, paintings, photography, prints, mixed media and sculpture. Cuba's palette of colors, its landscapes, animals, people and politics are portrayed in many mediums. Hearts and Minds Past and Present will explore this extraordinary island through many of its own as well as North American contemporary artists.
